Envision on Friday will host a forum for the two candidates running to be the U.S. Representative from the 4th Congressional District of Kansas.

U.S. Rep. Todd Tiahrt (R-Goddard) is scheduled to speak around 11:40 a.m., with Kansas Sen. Donald Betts to follow around 12:15 p.m. The event is not a debate.

The two will discuss the economy and how it pertains to nonprofit organizations, says Perry Schuckman, executive director of the nonprofit chamber of service. More than 100 nonprofit executive directors from the Wichita area registered to attend.

Schuckman says a struggling economy will affect donations and the services nonprofit organizations are able to provide.

“The economy is going to hit the nonprofits really hard,” he says.

More than 100 nonprofit executive directors from the Wichita area registered to attend the event.

Envision is located at 610 N. Main in Wichita.
