Organizational Information: WHFH is an equal opportunity employer and lender serving as a Christian housing ministry to end poverty housing by providing simple, decent, and affordable homeownership opportunities to low-income households in Sedgwick County, Kansas.

The organization has been an affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International (HFHI) since October, 1986. WHFH's progress toward the elimination of poverty housing has been:

- ◆ 129 homes built and families equipped with education to be successful homeowners, in partnership with local individuals, families, churches, businesses and other non-profit organizations as fulfillment of the ultimate goal to end substandard and poverty housing in Wichita and Sedgwick County.
- ◆ Over 300 children now have the stability of attending the same school year after year.
- ◆ 76 international families given the keys of affordable homeownership by WHFH sponsoring the construction costs to build HFHI houses worldwide. The WHFH organization accomplishes this by sending a 10% tithe on unrestricted contributions to HFHI and is currently sponsoring homes in Guatemala and Uganda.
- ◆ WHFH has grown in service to the local community by over 340% in five years, is almost finished building WHFH's first neighborhood development project and has launched the next 9-acre neighborhood development project to build an additional 45 houses.

The WHFH staff and board members are expected to relate to each other as a collaborative team working with mutual respect for individual skills, knowledge, and diversity.
